BEFORE THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE BOARD OF
REGISTRATION FOR PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS

IN RE: JOSEPH W. SULESKY C2010-19

CONSENT ORDER

Comes now the West Virginia State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers by Edward L. Robinson, P.E., its president (hereinafter "the Board") for the purpose of agreeing to disciplinary action to be taken against Joseph W. SuLesky (hereinafter "Respondent"). As reflected in this document, the parties have reached an agreement concerning the proper disposition of this matter, and the Board, upon approval of such agreement, does hereby FIND the following:

1. The Board is a state entity created by West Virginia Code § 30-13-1 et seq. and is empowered to regulate the practice of engineering pursuant to the same.

2. Respondent Joseph W. SuLesky is a professional engineer in West Virginia, P.E. License No. 12373.

3. This Complaint was submitted by Claudio E. Yon, P.E., [hereinafter at times "Complainant"] on April 23, 2010, and was forwarded to Respondent by cover letter dated April 26, 2010.

4. Respondent submitted a written response on June 15, 2010, and at a later date notified the Board of his representation by counsel.

5. As alleged in the Complaint, the conduct complained of occurred when Respondent was an employee of Complainant’s firm, Alliance Consulting, Inc., located in Beaver, West Virginia.

6. The sum and substance of this Complaint alleges as follows:
(a) Respondent took client project-specific digital records, work product prepared from those records, and non-project-specific records, which conduct was prohibited by the published rules of the employee handbook;

(b) Respondent encouraged an employee of Alliance to take Alliance digital records, which employee later went to work for Respondent at his new business;

(c) Thousands of files were copied onto seventeen (17) compact disks and a USB thumb drive and were for the purpose of converting to Respondent’s own use in connection with his new business; and

(d) Respondent was terminated immediately, after which Respondent again accessed his employer’s computer/server and remotely transferred files and attempted to delete his Alliance email account.

7. In the filed response and otherwise, Respondent denies any conduct which was specifically prohibited by the employee handbook and states that he did not use the digital files for any purpose, returned all the digital files at the request of his former employer and did not disclose any of the digital information to any other person or entity.

8. Respondent admits to personally copying digital information of his employer, including (a) client-specific digital files which had been prepared by or under the direct supervision of Respondent while he was employed by Alliance Consulting, Inc., for Alliance clients; and (b) some generic digital information of the employer.

9. The Board finds that the unauthorized copying by an employee of his employer’s digital records constitutes an act of misconduct in the practice of engineering and conduct that is in violation of the Rules of Professional Responsibility in the following particulars:
(a) The conduct does not adhere to standards of highest ethical and moral conduct in all aspects of the practice of engineering, in violation of W. Va. Code R § 7-1-12.2(a);

(b) Respondent did not avoid conflicts of interest and did not faithfully serve the legitimate interests of his employer, in violation of W. Va. Code R § 7-1-12.2(d); and

(c) Respondent did not make full prior disclosures to his employer of the potential conflict of interest and other circumstances which could influence or appear to influence his judgment or the quality of service to his employer, in violation of W. Va. Code R § 7-1-12.4(e).

10. Respondent promptly admitted the allegations forming the basis for the Board’s findings of misconduct in violation of the Rules of Professional Responsibility. Therefore, the Board, in its discretion, will not assess administrative costs although the Board did incur costs in connection with this Complaint and has the power to assess such costs.

11. To the extent that this Consent Order is approved by the Board, Respondent waives his right to a hearing on this matter and other rights set forth in West Virginia Code § 30-13-1 et seq. and the procedural rules of the Board.
